The men's meeting conducted at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon was ad-dressed by the Rev. George C. Chap-pell of the Montville Baptist church. He chose for his text I. Corinthians 9, 27; "But I buffet my body, and bring it unto bondage: lest by any means after that I have preached to others. I myself should be - a castaway." Among other things the speaker said: The danger for you and I and all Christians lies in the last sentence that we should be a castawey. Even such great men as St. Paul with his wonderful ministry wonders whether re should become a castaway. spirit of Christ was so prominent in his life that nothing could come into his life to lead him astray. Although with all this there might possibly something come up that would lead him astray and he would become a castaway.

As your life will not be happy until you come to Christ and acknowledge him as your saviour, the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Unless you do life is not wirth living for and if you do take Christ as your saviour you must live brighter and brighter until the day of judgment.

In part Mr. Hill said:
Most of us show more courtesy to our earthly friends than we do to the heavenly friend. We all agree that all the friendships of earth sink into utter insignificance when compared to the friendship shown us constantly by the one who is indeed a friend that sticketh closer than any brother. If President Wilson should come up the street and knock at your door every member of the family would rush to admit our American chieftain. Siven if the humblest person should call we would shally oven the door and Md would gladly open the door and bid him welcome. We take into our be-lings various kinds of medicines and thereby show our confidence in and appreciation of the physician whom we have quickly admitted into our homes after a hasty summons, and yet we refuse often to permit the guest from beaven who is really guest from heaven who is really a physician of the soul and who has never lost a case when the sin sick patient has shown faith enough in him to take the medicine which he prescribes.

Walter G. Dolbeare, first assistant engineer of the steamer Charlemagne Tower, Jr., which foundered off the Jersey coast Friday morning, arrived Jersey coast Friday morning, arrived in New Lendon Sunday evening on the Glit Edge from New York after passing through one of the most harrowing experiences in marine annals. Capt. H. C. Simmons and 16 of the crew, which number included Engineer Dolbeare, Engineer H. A. Wilbur of Mystic, Second Assistant Engineer Harry C. Albin of New London, his brother, Burt J. Albin, and Louis Edwards of Fisher's Island were rescued from their er's Island, were rescued from their drifting long boat only by the merest chance. All were suffering intensely from exposure that had rendered them almost powerless to navigate the boat. Off Barnegat they hoisted a light which through the gathering darkness and blinding snow was barely visible. Well nigh miraculously they were sighted by Captain Beranger of the whaleback Bayport as that steamer passing.

The Bayport put about and discov ered the half frozen and snow covered men huddled in their frail craft. In order to make room for all in the boat, some of the crew had been forced to ile in the bottom. Although suffering severely from their exposure, the men were brought back to normal condi-tion by the application of restoralives. Relatives of the men living in New London and vicinity were relieved of their great anxiety Saturday evening by a telegram received by the parents of the Albin brothers announcing that

FACE BROKE OUT IN RED SPOTS

Blotchy All Over. Became Scaly. Scratched Until Made Them Bleed. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Face and Head Cured.

24 Gilbert St., New Britain, Conn. -"My little boy's face used to get awful red and sometimes when I used to wash it is would bleed. Then it got blotchy all oves and was horrid looking. His face broke out in red spots and then became scaly. He used to scratch them until he would make them bleed. Then his head started to break out. He was restless at night and com-plained of his face being sore. His head was all little cuts from scratching it.

"So'I thought I would send for a sample of the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, I only used them for a few days when there was such a change in his looks. His face began to get clear. When the sample was gone I got one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment. I washed his face with the Cuticura Soap and warm water every night and morning and applied the Cuticura Ointment for four weeks and his face was cured. I got another cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and was only using them for two weeks and they made his scalp nice and clean. His head was cured." (Signed) Mrs. Isabelle Guenther, May 26, 1913.

For treating poor complexions, red, rough hands, and dry, thin and falling hair, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have been the world's favorite for more than a gen-eration.
